“We chose Oracle’s JD Edwards EnterpriseOne suite because it is a world-class product with expertise in the construction sector.” – Andres Ortega, Vice President of Finances, Constructora Colpatría S.A.

Constructora Colpatría Increases Productivity and Improves Subcontractor Oversight

A leader in the residential and commercial construction market in Colombia, Constructora Colpatría S.A. is a subsidiary of Grupo Colpatría. It has estimated sales of US$160 million for the year 2007. The company recently launched operations in Mexico and Peru, which is expected to add US$22 million to sales in 2007.

Challenges

- Find a solution to get reliable online information
- Increase control of construction processes
- Collect more accurate, detailed information to support decision-making
- Centralize operations to ensure better control across several countries

Solution

- Implemented Oracle’s JD Edwards EnterpriseOne providing fast, comprehensive online information throughout the company
- Increased control of processes, allowing each person to understand his role in each step of the process
- Increased customer guarantee with JD Edwards Fixed Assets Accounting, improving control over their claims
- Provided better control of subcontractors, ensuring that projects are on track and payments are on time
- Improved ability to control project budgets by reducing evaluation time from three months to two weeks
- Obtained faster administrative and financials reports, improving time from two months to one week
- Collaborated with Oracle Partner BFGP de Colombia to achieve a successful implementation
