Key Benefits

The Oracle Process Value Accelerator allows you to rapidly optimize the implementation of key processes by leveraging the best Oracle BPM architects available, a proven BPM process, and Oracle's BPM factory that documents business processes and provides certified reference architectures. The service targets a limited number of selected processes, and provides a set of functional and technical architectures that you will use as the starting point for an ongoing optimization program. The cornerstone of this service is the Oracle Process Value Analysis Roadmap, a rich set of data that pulls all the activities of the Oracle Process Value Accelerator together into a single deliverable. The Oracle Process Value Analysis Roadmap documents the current state of the selected processes, the recommended business architecture, and provides proven reference architectures pulled from Oracle's BPM factory. The roadmap provides an
