The ultimate goal of any IT modernization project is a reduction in total cost of ownership (TCO), an increase in agility to ongoing business requests, a lowering of the risk of reliance on legacy skill sets, and the ability to meet compliance demands. In the current economic climate with rising costs and tightening budgets, many organizations are embracing the Java platform as technology architecture of choice. Many customers with existing applications based on an Oracle Forms environment are now investigating the possibilities of extending or migrating existing Oracle Forms Applications as a way to reduce costs and improve efficiencies.

Are you an existing Oracle Forms applications customer who would like to modernize your legacy applications and move them into the Java world? Would you like to modernize your legacy Oracle Forms applications to improve your overall costs? If yes, the Oracle Forms To ADF Transformation Assessment is for you. Oracle has the technology and expertise to help you make the optimal choice.

Overview
The Oracle Application Development Framework (ADF) is Oracle’s state-of-the-art development environment for building Java and SOA-based applications. The Oracle Forms To ADF Transformation Assessment Service assesses the feasibility and effort required to transform your existing Oracle Forms application to the Oracle ADF. Our Oracle Experts will work with your team(s) to evaluate possible approaches for Oracle Forms modernization suited to your needs. Possible scenarios can include:

• Improving efficiency and reducing cost by adding self-service functionality to the back-office Oracle Forms applications.
• Improving end user productivity by providing user-friendly and task-oriented user interfaces using state-of-the-art web technologies.
• Protecting your investment in Oracle Forms applications by “wrapping” them as SOA services, enabling you to reuse existing IT assets (people, data, etc.).

Scope of the Offering
We provide an analysis assessment and review of a pre-determined number of Oracle Forms applications. Oracle Experts will assess the feasibility and effort required to
