

Oracle Solaris Frequently Asked Questions Product System Requirements

1. What are the hardware requirements for Oracle Solaris Operating System?

Minimum of 2 GB for the smallest set of software packages

6 GB for the most popular set of software packages

2. What is the required disk space?

Required disk space will vary based on OS packages selected, desktop or server use, desired swap and temporary space, localizations/translations, online documentation and applications installed.

3. What are the memory requirements?

Absolute Minimum 128 MB (256 MB for x86/x64-based systems)

Recommended minimum 512 MB

NOTE: Memory requirements will vary depending on the application software being used, system configurations and the number of clients/users.

4. What are the supported platforms?

Oracle and Sun UltraSPARC systems, Fujitsu SPARC64 systems, 32 and 64 bit Systems based on AMD, Intel and VIA x86 CPUs.