Cautionary Statement Regarding Forward-Looking Statements

This document contains certain forward-looking statements about Oracle and Responsys, including statements that involve risks and uncertainties concerning Oracle's acquisition of Responsys, anticipated customer benefits and general business outlook. When used in this document, the words "anticipates", "can", "will", "look forward to", "expected" and similar expressions and any other statements that are not historical facts are intended to identify those assertions as forward-looking statements. Any such statement may be influenced by a variety of factors, many of which are beyond the control of Oracle or Responsys, that could cause actual outcomes and results to be materially different from those projected, described, expressed or implied in this document due to a number of risks and uncertainties. Potential risks and uncertainties include, among others, the anticipated synergies of the combined companies may not be achieved, the combined operations may not be successfully integrated in a timely manner, if at all, general economic conditions in regions in which either company does business, and the possibility that Oracle or Responsys may be adversely affected by other economic, business, and/or competitive factors. Accordingly, no assurances can be given that any of the events anticipated by the forward-looking statements will transpire or occur, or if any of them do so, what impact they will have on the results of operations or financial condition of Oracle or Responsys.

In addition, please refer to the documents that Oracle and Responsys, respectively, file with the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission (the “SEC”) on Forms 10-K, 10-Q and 8-K. These filings identify and address other important factors that could cause Oracle's and Responsys' respective operational and other results to differ materially from those contained in the forward-looking statements set forth in this document. You are cautioned to not place undue reliance on forward-looking statements, which speak only as of the date of this document. Neither Oracle nor Responsys is under any duty to update any of the information in this document.

Oracle is currently reviewing the existing Responsys product roadmap and will be providing guidance to customers in accordance with Oracle's standard product communication policies. Any resulting features and timing of release of such features as determined by Oracle's review of Responsys' product roadmap are at the sole discretion of Oracle. All product roadmap information, whether communicated by Responsys or by Oracle, does not represent a commitment to deliver any material, code, or functionality, and should not be relied upon in making purchasing decision. It is intended for information purposes only, and may not be incorporated into any contract.

Marketing Has a Greater Responsibility for the Customer Experience than Ever Before

As companies become ever more responsive to and informed by their customers, their range of interactions will continue to expand. Those customer interactions hit many different parts of the organization…and need to be integrated into consistent customer journeys. That’s where marketing comes in.”

Orchestrating the Customer Experience Across Touch Points has Become More Complex

MORE CHANNELS
- Interactions need to take place in more places, across email, web, mobile, social, display and commerce

MORE ORCHESTRATION
- Consumers move seamlessly between channels and devices over time
- Better coordination across marketing touch points needed to deliver relevant interactions in real time

MORE BUSINESS MODELS
- Business to business and business to consumer companies have unique challenges and ultimately require unique solutions
Only the Oracle Cloud Can Deliver Complete Customer Experiences for both B2B and B2C
What Marketers Need for B2C Use Cases

A platform that can orchestrate consumer experiences over time, across channels and systems, and at scale

>50% of customer experiences happen during a multi-event, multi-channel journey.*

Only 38% of marketers agree that their company has a single view of customer interactions across touch points and over time.

Responsys Customer Success Story
MetLife delivers personalized experiences at massive scale

COMPANY OVERVIEW:
• MetLife, Inc. is a leading global provider of insurance, annuities and employee benefit programs, serving 90 million customers

CHALLENGE:
• MetLife’s traditional business model relied on insurance agents to coordinate the complex quoting and application process. But in the digital age, they needed a way to replicate their customer experience across email, mobile, and web interactions.

BENEFITS:
• With Responsys, MetLife created an orchestrated solution that automatically drove applicants from quote to payment using email, SMS, and display. In doing so, they increased their net promoter score significantly, an indication of customer satisfaction, to more than double the industry average.
Upon starting a quote, applicants are prompted to opt-in to additional channels. Applicants who have disengaged with the process can be reminded with targeted display advertisements. Applicants who are missing paperwork are notified automatically through either email or SMS message. Policy approval and the transition to the purchase process can take place via mobile or email channels.
