Oracle Event Code of Conduct

Oracle is committed to promoting a corporate culture that is centered on integrity, accountability and ethical business conduct. Oracle expects all event attendees to adhere to high ethical standards and to avoid engaging in any activity that involves even the appearance of impropriety. By attending or participating in an Oracle event, you agree to adhere to this Code of Conduct. Oracle affirms the principle of equal employment and business opportunities without regard to any protected characteristic, including but not limited to: race, religious creed, national origin, color, sex or gender, gender identity or expression, age, mental or physical disability, mental condition, pregnancy, marital status, national origin/ancestry, genetic information, political affiliation, military and protected veteran status, sexual orientation, or any other characteristic protected under federal or state law or local ordinance. Oracle policy prohibits harassment in any form and Oracle expects event attendees to practice and promote an event environment free from harassment and discrimination.

Oracle reserves the right to limit attendance at its events, at its sole discretion. If you do not comply with this Code of Conduct, Oracle reserves the right to remove you from the event (including without a refund), prohibit your attendance at future Oracle events, and/or pursue other means necessary to appropriately address your failure to comply with the Code.

Please raise any issues or concerns at an Oracle event immediately to the onsite Oracle staff at the registration desk and/or contact Oracle Global Physical Security Team at gsoc-amer_ww@oracle.com or +1.650.506.5555.

Onsite Special Meal Requests

Where applicable onsite, Oracle makes an effort to provide meals that accommodate attendees with a variety of dietary requirements (vegetarian, vegan, gluten/dairy free). We will make an effort to accommodate additional special requests, although we can't guarantee the ability to fulfill every request. Special meals are available on a first-come, first-served basis and quantities are limited, so your meal choice may not be available at some lunch locations. When you arrive at the lunch area, make your request known to a server and they will review with you the available meal options.
