Oracle Commerce Consulting Advisory Service

Looking to get started with your new Oracle Commerce Cloud (OCC) application but not sure where to begin? Need some advice on your existing OCC implementation or a new project initiative? The Commerce Consulting Advisory Service was created to address these needs and more. This offering provides an opportunity to rapidly engage the Oracle Commerce Consulting team in an advisory capacity.

WHAT IS A CONSULTING ADVISORY SERVICE?

The Advisory Services Pack is a 10-day fixed price services offering with flexible scope and delivery. The package is applicable to the Oracle Commerce Cloud product.

WHAT IS THE VALUE OF A CONSULTING ADVISORY SERVICE?

Defining and negotiating customized services contracts can be overwhelming and time consuming. When you just need some advice or just need to get started fast, the Advisory Service allows you to bypass the traditional process and purchase a pre-packaged service flexible enough to meet your needs.

WHAT DOES A CONSULTING ADVISORY SERVICE LOOK LIKE?

The package starts with an initial call to collectively determine the best use of the time purchased and preferred timelines. Selected services are delivered in contiguous days when possible. The time purchased may be used for the following types of services:

• Requirements analysis for your OCC Application implementation;

• OCC Application architecture and design review and recommendations;

• Review of your implementation project plan;

• Review of specific issues related to your OCC Application;

• General assistance and advisory services related to your OCC Application.
