The Nonproduction Environment may not be used for production or archiving purposes or for performance or stress testing, and any service levels, performance targets and disaster recovery described for the applicable Oracle Cloud Service are not applicable to Nonproduction Environments. APPENDIX 1: ORACLE INTEGRATION FOR CONSTRUCTION AND ENGINEERING

Oracle Integration for Construction and Engineering is a cloud-based integration platform provided to You for the specific purpose of integrating applications with the following Oracle Cloud Services, as referenced from the corresponding Cloud Service section earlier in this document (excludes any Cloud Service containing 'Government', 'Sovereign', 'Department of Defense', or 'Academy' in its name):

- Oracle Primavera Cloud Services
- Primavera Unifier Cloud Services
- Textura Payment Management Cloud Services*

* Service Descriptions for Textura Payment Management Cloud Services can be found in a separate document on www.oracle.com/contracts.

Oracle Integration for Construction and Engineering tracks the quantity of Messages per Month that is processed, in aggregate, across Your eligible Oracle Cloud Services listed above.

Usage limits: Oracle Integration for Construction and Engineering is subject to the following:

- You have an active subscription to at least one of the eligible Oracle Cloud Services listed above.
- Oracle will provide, per Your request to Oracle, a single instance of Oracle Integration for Construction and Engineering, for both Production and Non-Production purposes, to support Your eligible Oracle Cloud Services as listed above.
- One integration end-point must be one of the eligible Oracle Cloud Service listed above using a pre-built integration published by Oracle.
- Customizations to the pre-built integration published by Oracle are Your responsibility.
- The instance is limited to up to two (2) Message Packs, described as follows:
 - Each Message Pack is the equivalent of 1 Million Messages and is defined as the number of 1,000,000 message quantities per month used as part of Oracle Integration for Construction and Engineering;
 - A message is defined as up to 50Kb of in-and-out transmission from/to the eligible Oracle Cloud Service;
 - Any messages over 50Kb in size must be counted as multiple messages, with each 50Kb or portion thereof counting as equivalent to one message (e.g., 210Kb would be counted as 5 messages).
- Messages incoming or outgoing via all protocols except file (file, sftp, ftps, or attachments) are limited to 10 MB in size.
- Files or attachments over 1MB and up to 1GB in size are temporarily stored in the Oracle Integration instance while being processed with a limit of 10GB at any point in time; Individual file or attachment size limitations are clearly visible in the product design time UI and are subject to change.
- Instance information about processed messages or message traces are retained in the database for up to three (3) days.
- If you exceed the capacity of two (2) Message Packs per month for three (3) consecutive calendar months, Oracle may limit the number of messages supported through Oracle Integration for Construction and Engineering and you may be required to purchase, through a separate order with Oracle, a separate subscription to Oracle Integration Cloud (OIC) Service.

- If no messages are sent or received within three (3) consecutive calendar months, Oracle may disable and terminate Your access to Oracle Integration for Construction and Engineering.
- Access to modules and functionalities within Oracle Integration for Construction and Engineering is limited to creating and managing application integrations only. This includes adding and updating projects as well as designing integrations, connections, events, lookups, libraries, packages, agents, and adapters. Other modules and functionalities, including but not limited to Process Automation, Visual Builder, File Server, Robots, and B2B require You to purchase Oracle Integration Cloud (OIC) Service through a separate order with Oracle.
