December 2022 Season's Greetings and Happy New Year Edition

Wherever, however, and with whomever you celebrate the season and the New Year, the Oracle Database team wishes you and yours a safe, happy, and healthy 2023!

To give you a great way to end the year, and start the New Year, we invite you to explore these great Oracle Database learning resources.

Learn Free in 2023 (Well, 2022 also!)

It rhymed, so, we went with it.

Want to connect with other Oracle developers and Oracle experts? The Oracle Ask Tom community is a great place to start. There you will find resources to help you improve your Oracle Database developer skills. Think of it as Stack Overflow for Oracle and more!

Want to learn more about developing applications with Oracle Database or refresh your knowledge? Check out our Oracle Database Development Step-by-Step Introduction. You can even choose between the Quick Basics and Detailed Training.

Want to test your skills and keep them sharp? The Oracle DevGym has plenty of great workouts for you to choose from.

Want to learn Oracle APEX? The Oracle APEX: Foundations Learning Path is an awesome resource for you to add to your Oracle Database and developer skills by learning or improving your skills with Oracle's premier low-code development tool.

And, of course, nothing is better than having your very own Oracle Database to practice and try things. Sign up for an Always Free Oracle Autonomous Database Cloud Service, you will love it!

Build Expertise with hundreds of Oracle workshops on various Oracle products, 24x7 for free, on Oracle LiveLabs.

Learn, Write, and Share SQL at Oracle's interactive Live SQL site, built with Oracle APEX running on Oracle Database.

Build Muscles at the Oracle Dev Gym by taking workouts, quizzes, and even entire classes

on SQL, PL/SQL, database
design, logic, and more.

Thank you from all of us here at Oracle for building great new apps with Oracle Database. See you in 2023!
